Open Position in Immunology
Department of Microbiology & Molecular Genetics

The Department of Microbiology & Molecular Genetics at Michigan State University seeks candidates at the Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor level in the broad area of immunology, a research focus currently expanding at MSU. The Department is highly collegial and collaborative, with diverse research interests, including molecular and cellular immunology, bacterial and viral pathogenesis, prokaryotic and eukaryotic genetics, systems biology, and evolution at the molecular level. State of the art research support facilities (including high performance computing, flow cytometry, bio-informatics, genomics, proteomics, etc.) are available to the successful applicant. MSU is home to Colleges of Human Medicine, Osteopathic Medicine, and Veterinary Medicine. We invite applications from outstanding researchers who desire a highly collaborative and diverse environment. The successful applicant is expected to develop (or maintain) a rigorous, externally-funded research program with national visibility. Academic rank will be commensurate with experience. Teaching in graduate, professional, or undergraduate programs is expected.

Applications should be submitted electronically at https://jobs.msu.edu (posting #0667) with requisite material (letter of interest, curriculum vitae listing past and current funding if appropriate, a statement of future research goals, and names of three potential references (not to be contacted until approval is received from the applicant) uploaded as a single PDF. Review of applications will begin immediately and remain open until filled.

Additional information could be obtained via email to the Search Committee Executive Assistant at mmgchair@msu.edu. http://www.mmg.msu.edu

MSU is an affirmative-action, equal-opportunity employer and is committed to achieving excellence through diversity. The University actively encourages applications of women, persons of color, veterans, and persons with disabilities, and we endeavor to facilitate employment assistance to spouses or partners of candidates for faculty and academic staff positions.
